

MEMBER RULES

- WOW is a limited seat, membership women networking group.
- This group will be limited to a maximum of 30 members.
- Membership consists of $20 initiating fee and $10 quarterly dues.
- Leadership for this group will be voted on by members into a one (1) year term.
- Members must attend at least once a month in order to be able to renew quarterly membership. If you are going to miss both meetings in a month, you must send a substitute to represent your business. The substitute should not conflict with a current WOW member.
- Members must send a substitute in their absence.
- Members must check in with the WOW leadership board before bringing a guest in order to keep seat conflict.
- If member is unable to attend 3 meetings consecutively, her seat will be automatically open and she must check with the WOW leadership board before attending another meeting in order to keep conflict between seats. If seat has not been filled, the leadership will review member participation and make an appropriate decision then.
- Members will have a 60 second opportunity to speak at every meeting, and a 7 minute presentation every 6-8 months.
